OPEN AFTERNOON AND NIGHT

We issue a special invitation to the parents and guardians of young people, who think that a skating rink is not the proper place for their boys or girls to go. All that we ask is that they come and see for themselves how the rink is conducted as we positively do not tolerate any roughness or anything that would displease the most fastidious.
A healthful Amusement For Young and Old

Double Wedding. CLARKSBURG, Dec. 10.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Meigs J. Bartlett was the scene of a beautiful double wedding last evening when their two daughters became brides. Miss Mary Lee Bartlett became the bride of Mr. Boyd Solomon Fleming, of Clarksburg, and Miss Evelyn Meigs Bartlett was united in marriage to Mr. Lloyd Maxwell Graves, of Chillicothe, Ohio. The ceremonies were performed by the Rev. Charles Baird Mitchell, rector of the Christ Episcopal church, at half past seven o'clock. Only the immediate relatives and few friends were in attendance at the nuptials, but five hundred guests were received at the reception which was held from eight until eleven o'clock.

The brides wore gowns of white Georgette over charmeuse, with pearl trimmings and bridal caps of tulle, ornamented with pearls and orange blossoms. They carried shower bouquets of valley lilies and bride's roses. Miss Nellie Fackler, of York, Pa., school friend of Miss Evelyn Bartlett, was maid of honor for the latter. She wore a gown of white accordion pleated chiffon, with coral velvet blouse, and carried American Beauty roses. Miss Cecelia Calcutta, of Dyersburg, Tenn., school friend of Miss Mary Lee Bartlett, was the other maid of honor. She wore a frock of silk chantilly lace over canary crepe meteor.

The reception which followed the ceremony was a brilliant one. Tonight the newly wedded couples left for Baltimore and from there will go by boat to Jacksonville, Fla. They will spend the winter at St. Augustine, Fla.

Among the guests from a distance for the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Husted Brownfield, of Fairmont; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sinsel and Miss Sue Simmons, of Grafton; Miss Burns and Miss Eleanor Blackford, of Parkersburg; Miss Aldine Emmous, of Huntington.

Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Minor Dunham entertained a number of friends informally last evening at their home in Grant street, the occasion being their wedding anniversary. The guests included the members of the choir of the First Baptist church of which Mrs. Dunham is organist, and several other friends.

Entertained Friends. Harry Louder and Walter Nutter were hosts last evening to a number of their friends at the home of the latter in Washington street. Games and music were the diversions of the evening and tempting refreshments were served. The guests included were Virginia Wilson, Mary Brown, Pearl Griffith, Edith Loudon, Mildred Maple, Margie Nutter, Mary Bock, Harry Loudon, Howard Loudon, Walter Nutter, Emory Scott, Virgil Watkins, Ray Coffman, Cyrus Coffman, Julian Stealey, Harold Harrington.

Mrs. F. L. Nutter and Mrs. Amy Griffith served the guests.

Presbyterian Society. The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
